

CHAPLAINCY

Spring semester

2024

Welcome

The chaplaincy is a place where people are welcomed unconditionally with an attitude of openness, kindness, and respect. It fosters spirituality, conviviality, dialogue, reflection, and action on the UNIL and EPFL campuses.

The chaplaincy offers meals, excursions, evenings, discussions, events, moments of spirituality and celebrations. The team of chaplains offers support tailored to the needs of each person.

All members of the university community are welcome, regardless of their origin, social status, culture, affective orientation, or religious or political convictions.

Rooted in the Christian tradition, the chaplaincy is open to different religions, beliefs, philosophies and free thought. This service is provided jointly by UNIL, EPFL and the Catholic and Protestant churches of the Canton of Vaud.
